

Building 1959-98 Community

1959

Left: Construction of the Jewish Community Centre on 151 Chapel St. in Ottawa, Sept. 14, 1959. Photographer: Rapid Grip and Batten Limited

Left: Israel Flag Raising at City Hall in recognition of 40th anniversary Yom Ha'atzmaut, April 21, 1988. Photographer: Andre Sima

1988

“At its meeting in May 1989, the Ottawa Vaad Ha'lr adopted a major policy resolution which includes the concept of a community campus with centralized facilities, providing a visible focal point to the community. The Site Acquisition and Disposition committee is investigating the acquisition of the Kerr Street site.”
From OJB, March 9, 1990

1959

Aerial view of Rideau and 151 Chapel St. while the Jewish Community Centre building is under construction, Fall, 1959. The old Rideau Street school (Talmud Torah) is beside the foundation of the new building.

1997-98

Construction of the Soloway Jewish Community Centre of Ottawa, 1997 or 1998.

STRONGER TOGETHER:
A 90-Year Journey

jewishottawa.com

Caring, Connecting, and Celebrating
Jewish Life in Ottawa