

Fighting Antisemitism

2023
2024

JEWISH FEDERATION OF OTTAWA

During a press conference on Jan. 15, 2024, Chief of Police Eric Stubbs states that hate incidents are up 20%; Jews represent 27% of hate incident targets although they are only 1.4% of the population of Ottawa.

Created by Jasmine Kranat, Federation supports a travelling Holocaust exhibit for public school educators "From Darkness to Light: Remembering the Past, Educating for the Future." Hundreds of elementary students attend and learn. February, 2024.

CIJA VP for External Affairs Richard Marceau, MPP Goldie Ghamari, Mayor Mark Sutcliffe, MPP Lisa MacLeod, Solicitor General Michael Kerzner, and Police Chief Eric Stubbs gathered at Police headquarters in Ottawa to announce a $1.7M grant through the Safer and Vital Communities program to help stop hate crimes across the province. Jan. 29, 2024.

Hundreds attend CIJA's "Antisemitism - Face It Fight It" conference on Oct. 16 - 17, 2023 in Ottawa.

Deputy Prime Minister Chrystia Freeland, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and Minister of Foreign Affairs Melanie Joly among many others hold "We Remember" signs in attendance at the National Holocaust Monument ceremony, Jan. 26, 2024.

Placing a priority on antisemitism, Federation hires Jodi Green, Communications and Advocacy Specialist and David Sachs, Community Relations and Antisemitism Specialist; shown here with Ben Freeman, activist and speaker at Youth Event: Jewish Pride and Self-Advocating in a Time of War, Oct. 26, 2023.

Ottawa Mayor Mark Sutcliffe at centre with Interim CEO Sarah Beutel, proclaims January 27, International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Several local institutions light up buildings and spaces in yellow in remembrance. Shown here with Israel Ambassador to Canada Iddo Moed, Federation Vice-chair Danya Vered, Chair Karen Palayew, Past Chair Michael Polowin, Ben Leinwand, David Cooper, Sara-Lynne Levine. January, 2024

STRONGER TOGETHER:
A 90-Year Journey

jewishottawa.com

Caring, Connecting,
and Celebrating
Jewish Life in Ottawa