2011 to 2024

JEWISH FEDERATION OF OTTAWA

“It is impossible to overstate the positive influence of PJ Library on developing the Jewish values of our family. It’s a gateway to education about our Jewish heritage, religion, ethics and culture as well as an opportunity to make new friends in the community through welcoming holiday and event programming.”

– Lindsay Newman

Harold Grinspoon
FOUNDATION

PJ Library is supported in part by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation — a philanthropic organization deeply committed to charitable giving, primarily in the Jewish world.

88,895 books

have been distributed to Jewish families in Ottawa since 2011!

(equivalent to individual subscriptions)

PJ Library programs are offered in more than 35 countries. That’s over seven million children’s books a year, being enjoyed by families around the globe.

1,299 families

have been part of the “PJ Family” since 2011

monthly events

Parents and children alike enjoy get togethers to celebrate Jewish holidays, as well as excursions, summer visits to the park, pool parties and special guest music performances!

PJOW is the next chapter of PJ Library, for kids ages 9-12, and encourages social get-togethers and leadership activities.
