

We chose OJCS to be included in our Life and Legacy giving because we feel strongly about Jewish day school education in Ottawa. Our own children thrived in the warm environment. We saw firsthand, the school striving for academic excellence in three languages, while incorporating Jewish values and traditions. We need this to continue in our community.

Riva Levitan and Richard Roth