

Hawaii Inter-Island Chevrah Kadisha Series

The Chevrah Kadisha as Sukkah: Living Jewish Life as Community

Like a Sukkah sheltering the People of Israel in uncertain times, the Chevra Kadisha enfolds our island Jewish community. Come explore and learn with us how the Chevrah Kadisha supports the Jewish community, including rituals that guide us through the most challenging times, offering a pathway for embracing life fully, a companion through the process of integrating life's inevitable losses, and doing it as one community together.

September 11, 2022 5:00 – 6:30 pm Hawaii time

Ethical Wills: Leaving a Spiritual Legacy

Presented by Rabbi Janet Madden

Join Zoom Meeting: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88149888060>

What are ethical and spiritual wills, why do they matter, and what is their Jewish connection? Regardless of your age, it is always valuable and meaningful to consider the hopes, ideals, values, and blessings that you want to leave as a legacy to your loved ones. Ethical and spiritual wills are the way you can do that. This session will get you started on creating yours.

Writer and ritualist, Rabbi Janet Madden serves at Providence Saint John's Health Center and Fountainview at Gonda Westside. A Palliative care chaplain, she earned Rabbinic Certificate in Gerontology and Palliative Care from Yeshiva University and completed her certification in Jewish End of Life Studies from the Gamliel Institute. In addition to providing Spiritual Direction to Hebrew Union College students, CA, she is certified in Jewish Sacred Chant and Mussar. She earned her PhD in 19th century literature. Rabbi Madden is on the faculty of Kavod V' Nichum and the Gamliel institute.
