HOLOCAUST EDUCATION GRANT FOR TEACHERS

WHAT TEACHERS/ADMINISTRATORS CAN APPLY FOR:

The Charles & Mathilde Middleberg Holocaust Education Fund for Educators is proud to present its first annual financial grants (up to $1,000) to teachers and educators in Camden, Burlington, and Gloucester Counties. The grants are awarded to support programs educating students about combatting antisemitism, standing up against hatred and discrimination, and the importance of respecting one another, as well as practicing kindness and respect, all through the lens of Holocaust education.

These grant awards can be used to fund Holocaust-related learning materials, field trips, Holocaust survivor speakers, or other learning resources. We support creative and innovative teaching approaches.

WHO CAN APPLY:

- School-based clubs & organizations
- Public & Private Schools, Grades 5-12

Must be located in Camden, Burlington & Gloucester Counties

Key Dates:

Application Opens: October 1

Application Closes: November 15

Recipients Notified: December 15
