

World Religion Day Shreveport-Bossier

Sunday, January 26, 2025
2-5 p.m.

The Highland Center
520 Olive St., Shreveport

An annual celebration of the great religious diversity of our community, featuring:

- Table displays by participating faith traditions
- Panel discussions featuring representatives of different faiths dealing with “Big Questions”
- Sharing of food, music, practices, artifacts, and conversation in an atmosphere of curiosity, learning, and non-judgment.

Mission Statement of

World Religion Day Shreveport-Bossier

The participating faiths of World Religion Day Shreveport-Bossier seek to foster greater peace, harmony, and understanding through education and celebration, sharing beliefs and practices in an atmosphere of mutual respect, without intent to proselytize or convert.

For more information, call or text 318-465-3427.