Executive Director's Message - Steven Wendell

A career spanning more than 53 years doesn't survive without great partnerships, fantastic colleagues, and a high dose of good luck. There are so many times over the years that my career could have taken different turns. And there are many times my career path led me in directions I would have never dreamed possible and afforded me opportunities that many folks don't get a chance to experience.

Ukraine is in the headlines these days as a tug of war between Russia and the West unfolds on the Ukrainian border. In the winter of 2004, I was fortunate to be part of a resident camp director, international summer staff hiring tour that traveled to Kyiv as one of our camp job fair stops. We found ourselves in the midst of the "Orange Revolution" protesting the results of the Ukrainian Presidential Election held that fall. This mostly peaceful protest included thousands of young demonstrators camped out in the rather "chilly" winter weather on the main streets of Kyiv. As Americans, the demonstrators were most eager to engage us in conversation about their issues. I even have an official "Orange Revolution" scarf given to me as a gift from a demonstrator. It was fascinating and very informative to be able to interact in real time with participants during this historic event and learn about Ukraine and its issues from their perspective.

From Kyiv, we traveled to Moscow for a camp hiring fair there. I was overwhelmed by the beauty and cleanliness of the Moscow subways.

Just going down the long, steep escalators was like taking a slow ride on a roller coaster, and almost as scary. And I also took away a bit of the feeling of what it must be like to live in a country where your every move is being watched. We were never without our special "government chaperone" wherever we went.

Over the years that I worked in resident camping, I was fortunate enough to be able to attend many international camp hiring fairs, including trips to Warsaw, Krakow, Dublin, Belfast, Glasgow, Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Auckland, London, Manchester, and Amsterdam. Hiring international staff for US resident camps was, and remains even today, a big business. And of course for our Jewish resident camps, hiring Israeli staff is a major emphasis that enabled me, both for summer camping and year-round JCC and Federation staffing, to travel to Israel some two dozen times.

But to be able to fully engage and thrive in my Jewish communal professional career, including relocating to different communities seven times over the 53 years, it took a supportive life partner of 52 years. In many of the positions I have held, Charlene and I worked together as colleagues. The photo on the cover is from a Pittsburgh JCC camp staff whitewater rafting, staff bonding trip during counselor orientation to the Youghiogheny River. I love whitewater rafting, at least in my younger days, and took the counselor staff and oldest campers on annual excursions. In the photo, if you look closely, you will note Charlene's expression of terror as she realizes that as we head into a strong rapid, with large rocks on either side, she is in the front of the raft most exposed to danger and relying on me at the back of the raft as I struggle to navigate the group safely through the rapids. Now that's a true partnership and trust! And of course, we came out of that rapid in perfectly good shape and the partnership survives to this day!

The ABCs of PJ Library

A - ABOUT

PJ Library is a program of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation, a North American Jewish non-profit organization based in Agawam, Massachusetts. It was created in December 2005 as a Jewish engagement and literacy program for Jewish families with young children. PJ Library is modeled after Dolly Parton's Imagination Library program. PJ Library sends out free Jewish children's books to families "with Judaism as part of their lives" by monthly subscription. The UJCVP has been a partner in distributing these books since about 2008, allowing 200+ families the opportunity to learn together and celebrate our heritage through monthly bedtime stories. While PJ never charges families for their books, we have been very fortunate to have the Eugene M. and Betty N. Levin Philanthropic Fund generously step in from day one to provide for our community's children.

B - BOOKS

PJ Library selects both classic works like Hershel and the Hanukkah Goblins and Hillel Builds a House and more modern titles such as Bubbe's Belated Bat Mitzvah and Queen of the Hanukkah Dosas, which explore more contemporary and blended families. PJ Library sends more than 220,000 books to kids aged 6 months through 8.5 years in the USA and Canada each month. At 9 years old, tweens are invited to join PJ Our Way, a choose your own book program. Over 30 tweens on the Peninsula are currently selecting their own chapter book each month. These paperbacks range from works of fantasy and contemporary to historical fiction and biographies. Tweens are also given the opportunity to suggest titles and provide reviews in their online selection portal. PJ Library has even gone as far as providing parents with books, sometimes a holiday guide and sometimes a choice of biography or memoir. With over 670 titles (not including PJ Our Way) and even more not yet in circulation, PJ Library will continue to provide Peninsula kids book for years to come.

C - COMMUNITY

In addition to books, PJ Library strives to connect families to their local Jewish communities. Here on the Peninsula, that means PJ Library events for all our UJCVP families and PJ Our Way (PJOW) events for our 4th-7th graders. We strive to offer an event for each age group monthly. PJ Library has met at the pool, different parks, Home Depot in Williamsburg, and of course on Zoom. Recently, we have started a PJ Library of the Virginia Peninsula Facebook group to allow parents to connect with each on their own schedule. PJOW is a bit different; this youth group enjoys activities like trips to the planetarium and movies, cooking and fashion competitions, and even had zoom talent shows and scavenger hunts during the pandemic. Most recently, tweens made s'mores and had a karaoke party that channeled the best of the 1990 Bar Mitzvah scene. Upcoming events include the Community Purim Carnival on 3/20 and A Pre-Passover Find the Frog hunt on 4/3!

Thank you to our generous UJCVP partner, The Eugene M. and Betty N. Levin Philanthropic Fund, for continuing to provide for Peninsula Children.

Teens as Teachers - Wonderful Additions!

Our UJC Community Hebrew School is finally meeting in person! We have welcomed back students from all our local synagogues and couldn't be happier. As they settle into their classrooms, they are met with two new teaching faces.

We are delighted to welcome Reece David and Eden Marziano to our Hebrew school education team.

Reece has been a volunteer teaching assistant for the past three years. In fact, after graduating from Hebrew School and becoming a Bar Mitzvah, Reece never left the folds of Hebrew School, returning to volunteer his time to assist the teachers and help the students achieve their goals, both at the school and remotely when we moved to virtual instruction.

Eden begins her role as a teaching assistant for the first time this year. She is a graduate of our program and has been part of the Sunday School education team at Rodef Sholom Temple.

We are extremely fortunate to have these remarkable teens as a part of our Hebrew school team. They bring with them a comprehensive knowledge of Hebrew, while continuing to make learning fun. These teens are certainly ideal role models, already obvious by the high classroom attendance.

WELCOME REECE!
WELCOME EDEN!

We've Got a Shabbat Feeling, Deep in Our Hearts

At the Sarfan Early Childhood Center, that special Shabbat feeling is celebrated weekly through singing, dancing, and learning about the many wonderful traditions. It's a time when we get to slow down from our busy week to come together as a school family to share our love for one another and to actively take a moment to reset our minds and bodies. The Shabbat Bag is another Friday afternoon tradition the Sarfan Center has always looked forward to. The Shabbat Bag is filled with everything needed to celebrate: grape juice, challah, candles, blessings, and a Shabbat story or song. Every week a new student gets to take home their decorated to-go bag. Their homework for the weekend is to enjoy time together and find your own meaning of why we celebrate Shabbat. The bag then returns on Monday morning, along with their experience through words and photos. This precious moment captures the essence of the importance of bridging school and home life, which is something our Early Childhood Center values. We are overjoyed to share our Shabbat feeling with our school family!

President's Message - Kelli Caplan

The idea of warm weather and summer days brings into focus a different piece of our campus: the outside areas and all of the potential they possess for our community.

We have set our sights on improving the many outdoor spaces that grace our campus. Last year we asked you to reimagine camp, to help us make our vision of an enhanced camp experience a reality. The response was incredible, and that generosity allowed us to build a state-of-the-art ropes course and climbing tower, upgrade our basketball court, create nature trails and install bird cameras, hire a professional camp art instructor, and install an outdoor recreational canopy. The difference that the outdoor enhancements made was exponential and took camp to a whole new level of greatness.

But we are not finished. There is still so much to be done to elevate our outdoor space so that it is usable and appealing for all of our members, old and young.

We are continuing to brainstorm ways to make our campus multi-dimensional, a place that can be enjoyed year round. We hope you are as excited about the possibilities as we are, and that you will continue to help us make these ideas come to life. Consider this phase of the project as Reimagine our Campus, as the concepts are broader than camp and pull in many different segments of our member base.

This year, the plan includes hiring a new assistant camp director, who will also be a ropes course specialist; adding an art studio/multi-purpose, additional art equipment; and a new playground. Probably the biggest undertaking in this phase is a feasibility study of building a pool on our campus.

Reimagine More:
More Fun! More Space!
More Community! More Memories...

For information on how you can contribute to this effort, contact Sarah Barnett: sarah@ujcvp.org

A committee has been created to look into all aspects of a pool and what sort of financial and programmatic impact it would have on the UJC community. The committee is researching all angles of having a pool on campus again and will report back with its findings.

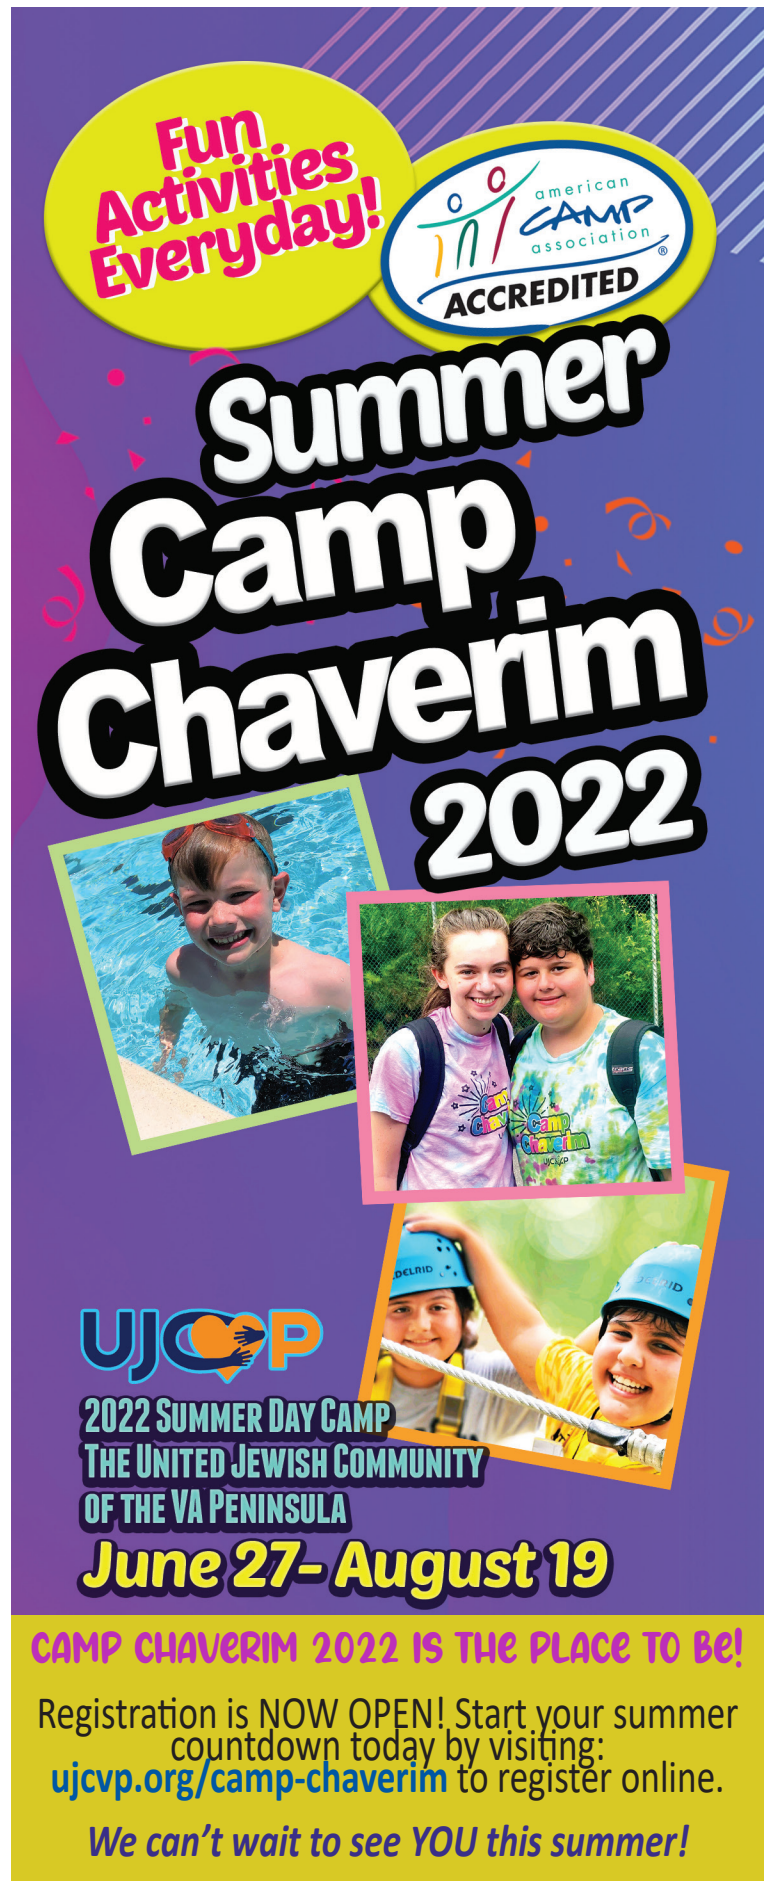

We cannot make these improvements without your support and generosity. We thank you for believing in our vision and continuing to help us grow and improve by leaps and bounds. We always welcome your ideas and feedback, and would love to hear your thoughts on reimagining our campus.

By adding so much to our campus we are enriching lives and our legacy. The more we positively impact our members, the more relevant we become to their lives. We want to be a place where people want to come, a place that brings joy, enlightenment, education, fun and fellowship.

I can't think of a better way to bring generations together than to broaden our outdoor and recreational spaces. There is no doubt that opportunities and possibility for togetherness and solidarity in those areas will abound, and that is where the magic of community happens and the future takes root.

Thank you in advance for being part of our dream to reimagine. It's a big undertaking, but it is one that we think is well worth the work and we are confident that it will bear fruit for years to come.

You are an integral part of making great things happen on campus, and we are eternally grateful for your support and dedication to seeing the UJC thrive.

Below the title are three photographs: a child smiling in a pool, two children in camp shirts, and two children in blue helmets participating in a ropes course. At the bottom, the UJCV logo is displayed, followed by the text "2022 SUMMER DAY CAMP THE UNITED JEWISH COMMUNITY OF THE VA PENINSULA" and the dates "June 27- August 19". Pool Committee Report

Recently, the UJC Board approved, unanimously, to create a pool committee charged with “investigat(ing) what is needed to build and operate a pool on the UJCVP Campus.”

The committee is made up of David Harriss (Chair), Kelli Caplan, Kevin Hudson, Eric Karlin, Judie Kavit, Betty Lasris, Steve Marks, and Kenny Murov.

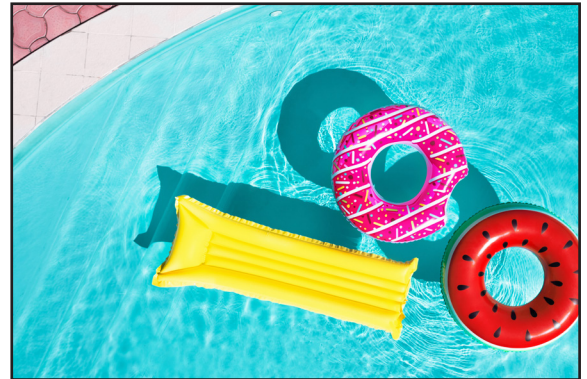

UJC Operations & Programs Vice President Judie Kavit said, “We’re excited to see a team of people come together to explore ways we can gain vision for our outdoor campus and growth.”

The idea behind the committee is gathering and presenting to the board the required data and information needed to explore a community aquatic asset as part of our UJC campus and programming.

“I’m just super grateful for the thoughtful leadership this team provides and we aim to make quick, accurate work of our findings.” said committee chair, Dave Harriss.

We are eager to share more information in the coming months.

Social Services Committee Report

It has been a pleasure to serve as the UJCVP Social Services committee chairperson.

As a relatively new committee, we are helping our Jewish Family Service office chart a new course as an independently run office after our very amicable separation from Jewish Family Service of Tidewater.

Supporting our Social Worker, Libby Batten, MSW, as she charts a new course for our community is a rewarding journey that we all look forward to sharing with you. In addition to the exceptional case work that Libby has always provided for our community members, her new independence will allow for more flexibility and increased possibilities in how we will be able to reach out and care for even more community members. Our committee, made up of dedicated UJCVP volunteers (Jim Barnett, Kevin Hudson, Joel Kirsch, Judy Kline, Steve Shapiro), meets with Libby on a regular basis to evaluate current practice and brainstorm ways we can help her serve you.

In the meantime, if any of you are interested in volunteering for future JFS endeavors, please feel free to reach out to me, Elaine Abrams, Social Services Committee Chair (elainea@msn.com) or Libby Batten (lbatten@ujcvp.org).

This year on March 17th, we celebrate the holiday of Purim. We can learn life lessons from the story of Queen Esther. One of which is: Unity Brings Strength.

Esther succeeds in her mission to save her people by uniting the Jews and bringing them together in prayer and fasting. And she leaves a wish for us, her children. Esther asks that we celebrate this day together with joy, parties, charity and sending food (shloach manot) to one another. Esther is telling us to create a feeling of unity and peace. The antidote to all disagreements is reaching out to one another with friendship. Unity brings strength.

We don't have to be the same. We must only know that we are brothers and sisters, one family.
Stop judging and start loving one another.

Ma'abarot
2019, 50min

Ma'abarot is the first documentary project about the story of the Israeli transit camps. The transit camps were a controversial enterprise, housing hundreds of thousands of new immigrants from various parts of the world, transitioning them into becoming part of the Israeli cultural tapestry. The film unravels the many stories of the camp residents, examining and discovering many surprising new details, shattering common stereotypes of the current Israeli discourse.

Shared Legacies
2020, 1 hr 35min

The often-forgotten story of the coalition and friendship between the Jewish and African American communities during the Civil Rights Movement. The crucial historical lessons of Black-Jewish cooperation are revisited and revived in this fascinating, urgent call to action. Common cause was found in the turbulent '60s Civil Rights era, as Jewish leaders backed Dr. King's efforts at racial equality and harmony. Yet, the relationship has frayed in recent years, as a once mighty bond of support and respect has seemingly faded, been forgotten, or ignored.

More information about the films can be found on the Film Festival page of the TBE website: tbwilliamsburg.org

Donations to the Film Festival can be made by check payable to Temple Beth El of Williamsburg and mailed to: Temple Beth El of Williamsburg, PO Box 3640, Williamsburg, VA 23187 or via the donations page on the TBE website.

Celebrate Purim With These Unique Hamantaschen Recipes

Pizza Hamantaschen Makes 20-24 hamantaschen

For the dough:

- 2 1/2 cups flour
- 4 oz butter
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 tbs sour cream/yogurt
- 1 tsp kosher salt
- 1/2 tsp sugar
- 1/3 cup cold water
- 1 tbs white vinegar

For the filling:

- 1/2 cup marinara sauce
- 1/2 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese

Preparation:

1. In a food processor pulse flour, butter, egg yolk, sour cream, salt, and sugar until a coarse meal is formed. With machine running, add water and vinegar, a bit at a time, until dough pulls together.
2. Turn dough out onto counter and knead a few turns to combine. Flatten into a disk and wrap in plastic or parchment paper and refrigerate for at least 1 hour or for up to 2 days.

Assembly:

1. Preheat oven to 350°F. Line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper.
2. Roll dough out to quarter-inch thickness. Cut dough into 3-inch circles. Spoon sauce into center.
3. Sprinkle cheeses over sauce.
4. Brush edges with egg wash and fold over into a triangle, seal tightly, be sure corners are firmly pressed together. Place hamantaschen on prepared pan and leave about 2 inches between for dough to expand.
5. Bake at 350°F for 30 minutes, or until golden brown.

Gluten-Free, Sugar-Free Hamantaschen Makes 20-24 hamantaschen

For the dough:

- 1 cup (110 g) cashews
- 1 egg
- 1 cup (95 g) almond flour
- pinch of sea salt
- 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 3 tbs (45 ml) sugar-free maple syrup
- 1/4 cup (28 g) coconut flour

For berry filling:

- 1 cup (140 g) frozen or fresh raspberries
- 1/4 cup (60 g) coconut palm sugar
- 1/2 lemon, juiced

For apricot filling:

- 1/2 cup (160 g) fruit-sweetened apricot preserves
- 1 tbs (8 g) poppy seeds

Directions:

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F. To make the dough, place the cashews in a food processor or blender and pulse until you have a "flour." Add in egg, almond flour, salt, baking soda and maple syrup. Blend until all ingredients are well combined and form a dough.
2. Spoon the dough onto a piece of parchment paper and begin sprinkling in the coconut flour, 1 tbs at a time. The dough will be sticky to start, but the coconut flour will take care of this. Once the stickiness is gone, roll out the dough between two pieces of parchment paper until it is about 1/4 inch thick. Use a drinking glass or round cookie cutter to cut circles out of the dough. Set the circles aside.
3. To make the berry filling combine the raspberries, sugar and lemon juice in a small saucepan over medium heat. Mash the fruit until it is soft and combines well with the sugar. Allow the mixture to simmer for about 8 mins or until it thickens and reduces. To make the apricot filling, combine the preserves with the poppy seeds and stir well.
4. Next, assemble the cookies by taking one dough circle and placing a dollop of filling in the center; do not over-fill. Fold the circle into thirds, sealing off the edges until a triangular shape is formed. Make sure you pinch the seams closed, or they can reopen while baking. Repeat until all of the dough is used. Place cookies on a parchment-lined baking sheet and bake for 10 mins. Remove from the oven and allow to cool slightly before serving.
