TERMS & CONDITIONS

Tickets are a revocable license to attend the premises of Beth Tzedec Congregation for the October 7th Commemoration Event ("Commemoration").

As the safety and security of all attendees at the Commemoration is our paramount concern, United Jewish Appeal of Greater Toronto ("UJA") reserves the right to revoke the license of any attendee in its sole discretion if the presence of the attendee, or their conduct or intended conduct, may lead, directly or indirectly, to a potential safety concern, may interfere with the experience of the other attendees of the Commemoration, may detract or distract from or undermine the purpose of the Commemoration, or may lead to a breach of the peace.

The attendee's presentation of their ticket at entry to the Commemoration constitutes a representation to UJA that the attendee has read, and confirms that they will comply with, the Code of Conduct, and accepts that their ticket, and their license to enter or remain at the location of the Commemoration, may be revoked at any time in the sole discretion of UJA.

CODE OF CONDUCT

United Jewish Appeal of Greater Toronto ("UJA") is dedicated to ensuring a safe and enjoyable experience at the October 7th Commemoration Event held on October 7, 2026, at an undisclosed location (the "Commemoration").

UJA is committed to fostering an inclusive environment free from harassment. UJA strictly enforces a zero-tolerance policy towards acts of intolerance and, racism and unsafe, abusive, unlawful, inciteful, or offensive conduct will not be tolerated at the Commemoration. This Code of Conduct is designed to uphold these values, addressing any behaviour that is inconsistent with this goal and detracts from the Commemoration's purpose of peaceful commemoration and the safety of the Commemoration.

The following conduct is prohibited at the Commemoration:

- Behaviour that is unruly, disruptive, threatening or violent in nature, including verbal or physical harassment of attendees, volunteers, or staff, or any act which, in the opinion of Commemoration staff, poses a safety risk or detracts from the peaceful experience of the Commemoration or which is otherwise unlawful.
- Using language or making gestures that are threatening, inciteful, abusive, or discriminatory, including on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, ability, gender, gender identity and/or sexual orientation.
- Possession of any of the Prohibited Items (defined below).
- Conduct that could result in injury to persons or damage to private property, whether owned by UJA or otherwise, or other personal property of UJA or attendees at the Commemoration.
- Engaging in commercial activity or displaying signs, symbols, images or messaging for commercial purposes without permission from UJA.

- Throwing objects of any kind.
- Entering unauthorized areas.
- Failing to follow requests from Commemoration staff regarding Commemoration operations, policies, and emergency response procedures.
- Consumption of alcohol or smoking of any kind (including any tobacco or cannabis products or byproducts, as well as e-cigarettes, vaporizers).

Compliance with Policy
Any failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in sanctions at the discretion of UJA, which may include removal, arrest, prosecution, and expulsion from the Commemoration and any or all UJA facilities whether or not a warning is issued.

Attendees who are removed from the Commemoration will have their ticket revoked and may receive a refund at the sole discretion of UJA.

UJA thanks you for adhering to this Code of Conduct and for making the Commemoration special and memorable for you and your fellow attendees.

Prohibited Items
UJA reserves the right to prohibit the entry of any attendee in possession of any items which may, in UJA's opinion, interfere with the ability of other attendees to enjoy the Commemoration, including but not limited to, the following:

- Any bags larger than 12" x 6" x 12"
