Funday is coming! Funday is coming!

Our 2nd annual end-of-summer community Funday is shaping up to be, you guessed it, lots fun! Similar to last year, we'll have;

- Vendors so you can shop for yourself or for gifts
- A silent auction where you can get some great gifts while helping us raise funds to further our mission
- A DJ to keep you entertained
- Our recipient organizations providing you with information about what they do
- Food vendors to keep you fed and hydrated
- Information, books, and activities from PJ Library & PJ Our Way
- A 50-50 raffle

But also this year;

- Allan's Falafel food truck!
- An Israeli Dance instructor: Shmulik Gov-Ari to lead and teach us Israeli Folk Dancing!

We're at Thomas Bull Memorial Park, at the Day Camp area this year, so there's also lots of space, pavilions, rest rooms, and a playground. And, we'll have plenty of security helping to keep us safe.

I look forward to seeing you there on Sunday, August 18 from 12-4pm for an end-of-summer party!

Bearing Witness with Rochelle Marshall, Sunday July 28th: Newburgh

After volunteering for the IDF in December I returned to Bear Witness. This mission was sponsored by Shurat Ha Din a most worthwhile organization. I saw things no one should see. The burned out Kibbutz with pictures of the murdered residents, the venue for the infamous concert now a memorial to hundreds of youngsters, hundreds of burned cars that was the tomb for its passengers and so much more. I endured this so I could bring back the enormity of this horror to those who only see what the media allows. The media that spends its time on dead terrorists forgetting about the hostages and the cause of this war. I also have the words of the many heroes of this calamity to bring to you.
