Journal conceived and designed by Sharon Ball.

Welcome

In every generation there are Women of Valor. These amazing women from around our county, in every stage of life from teens to 80's, inspire us with their passion and their drive to make their communities better. From Peace Corps to School Boards, from grassroots organizing to incredible philanthropy, each of these women demonstrate what one individual can do to make the world a better place. We are proud to share with our community these amazing honorees.

Women of Valor 2020 Keynote Speaker

Madeleine Kunin was born in Zürich. Her family was Jewish and they moved to the United States as a child. She received her bachelor's degree in history from the University of Massachusetts Amherst, a master's degree from the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism and a master's degree in English from the University of Vermont. Prior to seeking elective office, she worked as a journalist for The Burlington Free Press, as a tour guide at the World's Fair, and as a part-time college professor. She was also involved in community activities, particularly in the area of women's rights, children, and literature.

She served as the 77th Governor of Vermont, as a member of the Democratic Party, from 1985 until 1991, the first woman in US history to have been elected governor of a US state three times. She was Vermont's first and to date, only female governor as well as the first Jewish governor of Vermont. She was also the first Jewish woman to be elected governor of a US state.

She was a member of the administration of President Bill Clinton, serving as deputy secretary of education of the United States from 1993 until 1997, when she became the ambassador to her native Switzerland, as well as to Liechtenstein.

Ms. Kunin is the mother of four children: Julia, Peter, Adam, and Daniel. She divorced her first husband, professor and former First Gentleman of Vermont Arthur Kunin, in 1995 and married John W. Hennessey Jr, a professor at Dartmouth College, in 2006. Kunin is currently a James Marsh Professor-at-Large at the University of Vermont.

Meet Our Women of Valor

Sarah Shamah of Rock Hill is a senior at Monticello High School, where she is Valedictorian of her class. She is involved in many extracurricular activities, but her favorites are community service groups and projects. Sarah is a varsity alpine ski racer, golfer and scholar athlete. Next year she plans on studying Biomedical Engineering at the University of Texas. Every Sunday Sarah volunteered with the pre-school Hebrew school class at Temple Sinai in Middletown. She has written a children's book about tolerance and acceptance, in response to anti-Semitism in her school. The book is on its way to being published and implemented in Orange County schools.

Sophia Maier of Highland Mills completed her freshman year at Fordham University. Throughout high school she volunteered at Monroe Temple's Religious School and was highly involved with her temple youth group, serving as President in 2018. In college, she works at Temple Emanu-El's Religious School and is an active member of Fordham's Jewish Student Organization, where she will serve as Vice President next fall. Outside of Jewish life, Sophia spends her time reading about history and politics and tutoring low-income students in the Bronx.

Kiowa Pratt-Gordon of Warwick began her teaching career at Temple Beth Shalom where she taught Hebrew school and tutored bar and bat mitzvah students. She went on to teach in the Women's Studies Department at the University at Albany. Later, she served in the United States Peace Corps working to improve the teaching methodology in rural Mongolia. She was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship to work with university professionals and displaced populations in Colombia, South America. A recent graduate of Harvard University with a master's degree in Education Policy and Management, Kiowa now works for an international education technology group that provides for the needs of English learners abroad.

Aviva Snyder of Highland Mills is Hillel International's Campus Support Director, helping a portfolio of 14 campuses in the Northeast and New England drive excellence on campus. As Director for Talent Acquisition, she has guided countless current Hillel directors, local boards and universities through the process of selection and placement of senior leaders. In her current role, she builds strategies with campus Hillel staff, lay leadership, funders, students, university partners and community stakeholders to help the Hillel excel. In addition to her degree in Jewish Studies and archeology, Aviva spent a year in Israel as part of Young Judea Year Course. She lives in New York's Hudson Valley, where you will catch her running marathons, half marathons and chasing after her daughter, Noa.

Paula Blumenau of Middletown has spent most of her life in Orange County. As a two term President of Temple Sinai she has focused on community engagement and strengthening security in the building. In nine years as a Program Director and Coordinator with Jewish Family Service, she has trained hundreds of Friendly Visitor Program volunteers, provided engaging programs for Holocaust Survivors, and led the JFS KidsConnect Camp. Paula is serving her third term on the Board of Education in the Enlarged City School District of Middletown. She and her husband, Eric, live in the Town of Wallkill and are celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary in June. Their sons, Tyler and Seth, have chosen to live in the warmer weather of Charlotte, North Carolina. Paula's strong sense of family and community culminates with her continued dedication to keeping her Jewish heritage alive and thriving in all that she does.

Gail Oliver of Newburgh was President of the Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County, chair of the Temple Beth Jacob Social Action Committee, President of Noar of Newburgh Hadassah and Chair of Grassroots Fundraising for Hadassah's Lower NYS Region. She served as director of Volunteers at Westchester ARC and the coordinator of the Westchester Jewish Community Services' Havorah program, which served Jewish adults and children with developmental and intellectual challenges. Through her tireless recruitment of volunteers and donors to the Gift of Life Marrow Registry, she has helped scores of caring people to engage the best parts of themselves as well as everyone they have helped.

Carol Levine of Goshen began her involvement with Federation as a member of Young Leadership of Orange County. She currently serves on the Endowment Committee, which was founded by her late husband, Harold, z'l. She is a Federation Lion of Judah, part of the most dynamic philanthropic Jewish women in the world, comprised of strong women of all ages. They are an international sisterhood of thousands of global activists who care deeply about the Jewish future. For many years, Carol was a member of Temple Sinai's Board of Education and President of the Middletown Day Nursery. Her past affiliations include membership in the Junior League and a board member of her NYC co-op.

Lorraine Wernow of Marlboro participated as a volunteer when "The Jewish Ladies" came to do "Hair and Beauty Makeovers" at ARC where she was working as a Social Worker. She continued to be part of the makeover group after retiring. For many years she was a volunteer for the Orange and Sullivan Hospice, Inc. Program. For several years Lorraine served as the treasurer for the Hearing Loss Association of America, Mid-Hudson Chapter. She assisted with their Annual Walk 4 Hearing and set up remote captioning for their meetings. Lorraine is an avid volunteer for the Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County and the Gift of Life Drive Marrow Drives in her area.

Since 1977, the Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County has been working together with community members to build and support a strong Jewish community - enriching people's lives, helping those in need, and embracing new Jewish families. Each year our recipient organizations in Orange County, subsidized by generous Federation funding, help tens of thousands of people here at home. As part of the Jewish Federations of North America, we support hundreds of thousands more with our humanitarian initiatives around the world.

We are excited and proud for our sister, Carol, to be honored by the Jewish Federation with a Women of Valor award.

Our dear grandmother, Esther, was the first Levine of that stature in the community followed by our Mom, Florence.

Carol follows in good footsteps.

WOMAN OF VALOR, WOMAN OF STRENGTH

LOVE, RACHEL, MATT, HARRISON, LIV,
ERIC, SAMANTHA, HENRY & HADDIE

Carol...

A hearty Mazel Tov from your West Coast family!

We love you and are so proud of all the work you have done and continue to do, for the Jewish community of Orange County!

David, Sherrie, Aaron, Susan, Jacob, and Max

Let all who work for the community
do so for the sake of Heaven, the merit of their ancestors will sustain them and their righteousness will remain forever.

-Pirkei Avot 2:2

Congratulations to all the Women of Valor.

Mazel tov to our Temple Sinai Women of Valor!

Paula-

"She anticipates the needs of her household, and the bread of idleness, she does not eat."

It has been a true honor to work with you these past four years. Your dedication to our community is unparalleled. Our community is your household, and you are truly a woman of valor in your tireless dedication. Mazel tov!

Sarah-

"She opens her mouth with Wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue."

It has been a pleasure being your teacher! You bring such kindness, creativity, and warmth to our school. You bless our community with your kindness, and we wish you all the best in your journeys to come. Mazel tov!

Carol-

"She gives generously to the poor; Her hands are stretched out to the needy."

We are truly blessed to have you and your family as part of our Temple Sinai family. Your family's generosity to our community serves as an example to us all. Mazel tov!

Thank you all for all that you give to our Temple Sinai Family,

Rabbi Marcus Rubenstein
