GIVING
TUESDAY

Jewish Federation[®]
OF WESTERN CONNECTICUT

On Tuesday November 30, 2021 the Jewish Federation of Western CT will be joining thousands of charitable organizations around the world who participate in Giving Tuesday, the largest online charitable day of giving! Giving Tuesday is an opportunity to give back to organizations that you deeply care about. Remember to add Giving Tuesday to your calendar and please remember to show support for the Federation!

Supporting our Jewish future

Your Jewish Federation is the home office and lead voice of the Jewish community in Western and Northwestern Connecticut. As a result, we fight for the safety, security and well-being of the entire Jewish community and all of the Jewish institutions in our part of the Connecticut. We provide funding to support Jewish education in synagogue and day schools. We provide Jewish campership scholarships, college scholarships and promote educational opportunities in Israel. We stand up for Israel and stand against antisemitism and bigotry and hatred of all kinds. Because Jewish values require that we also look out for all those in need, we support local nonprofit organizations doing important work in the communities we serve and we work with other religious and secular organizations to help resettle refugees and to promote social justice.

We ask that you participate in our work every day. On Giving Tuesday, we ask that you make a contribution to support our work.

We will provide a special link for Giving Tuesday contributions. Donations associated with Giving Tuesday will be accepted through that link on Tuesday November 30, 2021. Contributions not associated with Giving Tuesday can be made by clicking on link provided below.

Thank you!

Terezín, also known as Theresienstadt, was a ghetto north-west of Prague. Set up by the Nazis on 24 November 1941, 80 years ago, it was a transit camp for Jews of Czechoslovakia, Central and Western Europe. Most of the prisoners were sent on to ghettos and camps in Nazi occupied East. In her brilliant study, Anna Hájková painstakingly analyzes the reality of this enforced society, one that goes beyond myths surrounding Theresienstadt. She presents a captivating portrait of the relationships between the Jewish prisoners and their captors as well as among the prisoners themselves.

*Anna will be interviewed by attorney and Holocaust educator, Michael Traison (right).

Martin Puchner – Why Words Matter: The Story of Rotwelsch and One Family's Secret History Centuries ago in middle Europe, a coded language appeared, scrawled in graffiti. A blend of Yiddish, Hebrew, and many European languages, it facilitated survival for people in flight—whether escaping persecution or just down on their luck. The Nazis tried to erase it.

During his childhood in Germany, in the 1970s, Martin Puchner, learned about this secret language, which is called Rotwelsch. Now a Harvard University Professor of Comparative Literature, Puchner's research into Rotwelsch's history revealed a surprise in his own history: his grandfather's connection to the Nazis. Join us for a discussion of his family memoir which probes the meaning of language and family, inheritance and debt, and the power of words to destroy and rebuild community.

Professor Puchner, the Byron and Anita Wien Professor of English and Comparative Literature at Harvard University, is a prize-winning author, educator, public speaker and institution builder in the arts and humanities. His writings range from philosophy and theatre to world literature and have been translated into many languages. He has brought four thousand years of literature to audiences across the globe – from the Arctic Circle to Brazil and from the Middle East to China. His book, Literature for a Changing Planet, draws lessons from world literature for addressing climate change. He is a member of the European Academy and has received numerous awards, including a Guggenheim Fellowship, a Cullman Fellowship, the Berlin Prize, and the Massachusetts Book Award. His latest book, The Language of Thieves, interweaves family memoir with a reflection on Rotwelsch, the underground language of Central Europe, which he learned from his father and uncle.

To RSVP for this event, please email Sally Talarico at jewishlifect@gmail.com. The Zoom link will be sent to you on Friday, December 10, 2021.
