

Continuing Education Credits

Person-Centered, Trauma-Informed Essentials for Aging Services

The Jewish Federations of North America's Center on Aging, Trauma, and Holocaust Survivor Care is proud to offer eight continuing education credits (CEs) for social workers for the course Person-Centered, Trauma-Informed Essentials for Aging Services.

Cost: Free

Number of Continuing Education Credits: Eight

Accrediting Body: National Association of Social Workers (NASW)

Eligible Learners: Social Workers. Please review and refer to your state specific rules and regulations regarding licensure.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. Can I take a portion of the course to earn a portion of the CEs?

The course is designed to be completed in full to obtain eight CEs. It is not possible to take a portion of the course to receive a portion of the CEs. All eligible learners successfully completing the course will receive eight CEs.

2. Which state licensure boards accept CEs earned through NASW?

Social workers from various states and territories in the United States are eligible for CEs through NASW. Please review and refer to your state specific rules and regulations regarding licensure. For more information about the state licensure boards that endorse the NASW CE approval program, click here:

<https://www.socialworkers.org/Careers/CE-Approval-Program/Social-Work-Licensure-Board-Endorsements>.

3. Who is eligible for CEs through NASW? Are CEs available for other disciplines?

Currently, only social workers are eligible for CEs. Other disciplines are not eligible for CEs, but please check back in.

4. How do I receive CEs for the course?

You can opt to receive CEs directly through the Course Introduction. Once you successfully complete the course, your CE certificate will be automatically generated. To successfully complete the course, you must review all required written and video content, complete the required assignments, and obtain a score of 80% or higher on all four assessments. You may attempt the assessments as many times as you would like.

5. What should I do with the CE certificate?

Please review and refer to your state specific rules and regulations regarding licensure and submitting CE certificates. The certificate of completion includes all the information needed by your board including the number of CEs awarded, date of completion, and program format.

6. I started the course but forgot to select that I wanted CEs during the Course Introduction. What should I do?

For this and other technical questions, please reach out to PCTItraining@JewishFederations.org.