

The Winners

Division A (grades 6 to 7)

1st Place

Charlie Shore from The Calgary Jewish Academy for his essay Perspectives on Inclusion.

2nd Place

Emilia Jorgensen from Mckenzie Highlands School for her essay
Meshane Ha Briot + Me.

3rd Place

Mia-Ruby Bassin from Halpern Akiva Academy for her essay
Embrace Your Gifts.

Division B (grades 8 to 9)

1st Place

Uma Fourman from The Calgary Jewish Academy for her essay A Million Unheard Sounds.

2nd Place

Georgia Martin from Halpern Akiva Academy for her essay Overcoming Disabilities

3rd Place

Kedem Segal from Halpern Akiva Academy for his essay
Inclusion Essay- Mishneh Ha Briot

Special Mention, Division A

Special Mention

Toby Greenwald
Destroying the Differences

Special Mention

Nadina Rusu
Amazing People with Disabilities Who Inspired Millions

Special mention (For originality and creative writing)

Avril Judkovski
Gift of Eyes

Special Mention

Atara Segal

Breaking the Barrier

Special Mention

Miri Greenwald

Understanding differences

Special Mention

Sara Bella Kostousov

Including Disabilities

Special Mention

Vanessa Orlov

The lonely Girl

Special Mention, Division B

Honorable Mention

(For sharing your personal experience, advocacy ideas and thoughts about inclusion)

Lilah Silver

I Am not my Diagnosis

Honorable Mention

(For a well-written essay with demonstrated research skills)

Joseph Kostousov

Transforming our Disability into Ability

Special Mention

Daniel Rusu

Inclusion Essay

Special Mention

Baruch Tzvi Greenwald

Why Do People Look a Certain Way at People with Disabilities?

Special mention

Samuel Kostousov

Seeing Disabilities in a New Light