Charleston, Israel, and around the world.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Through the REMEMBER Program, we connect local teachers with opportunities to learn, travel, and connect with each other. In this way, we ensure best practices when teaching this highly sensitive topic. In partnership with the South Carolina Council on the Holocaust, we present at teacher trainings and share resources.

Remember Project

In 2019, CJF professionals met with the heads of social studies curriculum in local school districts, and the overwhelming message we heard from them was, "If the students want it to happen, it'll happen." With this in mind, we created the Remember Project. In its 5th year, we have reached over 100 students in 20 local schools. Throughout the year, the students can work together to promote Holocaust education and genocide awareness. They also become ambassadors against hate through ADL trainings. Due to this initiative, we have seen an increase in schools taking advantage of the REMEMBER program resources.

Proclamations

In moving ceremonies during city and county council meetings, proclamations are read each year to commemorate the Holocaust.

Yom HaShoah

Each year, for Holocaust Remembrance Day, we bring the community together to honor and remember the victims of the Holocaust. During this meaningful ceremony, names of victims of the Holocaust with local ties to Charleston are read, and our rabbinical leadership leads us in prayers, and we recommit to telling the important and horrific stories of the Holocaust.

Charleston Jewish Voice Online

Formerly a printed quarterly publication, the digital Jewish Voice is sent to the e-mail inboxes of thousands of community members. The digital format allows us to provide timely news items and events from our partner organizations to the community. We encourage community members to share their stories with the greater Charleston Jewish community through the Jewish Voice.

Securing our Jewish Institutions and Jewish Community and Combating Antisemitism

Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Charleston

The Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Charleston's mission is to educate and advocate on issues of importance to the organized Jewish community based on consensus, civility, and a commitment to living Jewish values in the pursuit of justice. unified voice of the greater Charleston Jewish community on critical issues in the public sphere. Through this public advocacy, along with ongoing government affairs work, collaborative efforts to reduce food insecurity, and coalition building, we are building bridges that enhance cooperation and mutual understanding between the Jewish community and our neighbors.

ADL Partnership

The Director of Educational Initiatives is in a collaborative partnership with the ADL. This position allows us to bring ADL educational curriculum, resources, and support into our schools and community, offering ADL support and resources. The creation of this position represents the Charleston Jewish Federation's commitment to addressing the alarming rise in antisemitism right here in our community. With support from the ADL, our SCN Regional Security Advisor, and law enforcement, we work for the entire Jewish community.

Community Security

Secure Community Network (SCN) Partnership- SCN Regional Security Advisor works with all our Jewish institutions to create and manage a comprehensive security program. Whichever Jewish organizations our community members visit, they should be secure in the knowledge that best practices are in place for all potentialities: fire, medical emergency, weather, and worst- case scenarios, such as violent attacks. Our partnership aims to provide educational and support services and create a network among institutions to ensure best practices regarding security at what SCN refers to as "Centers of Jewish Life."

Enhancing and Deepening our Community's Commitment to Jewish Philanthropy

Annual Community Campaign and Allocations

The Annual Community Campaign enables donors to invest in Jewish communities in the greater Charleston area, in Israel, and in 70 countries worldwide. With oversight from the Charleston Jewish Federation Board of Directors, funds from the Community Campaign are allocated strategically and annually to CJF's initiatives, our international partners (the JDC and the Jewish Agency for Israel), and local Jewish agencies. All local Jewish agencies are invited to apply each year for an allocation. Applicants must demonstrate a need for a program or initiative that will impact Jewish lives and align with at least one core priority of the Charleston Jewish Federation.

Community Campaigns, which occur in every Jewish community in the Federation network, allow Jewish Federations of North America to touch more Jewish lives than any other organizational network.

Life and Legacy

The Charleston Jewish Federation partners with The Harold Grinspoon Foundation's LIFE & LEGACY Initiative to facilitate a community-wide planned giving program for the Charleston Jewish Community. The program provides training and resources to Jewish agencies in Charleston to secure after-lifetime gifts from community members. When a donor is approached, they are solicited on behalf of the entire organized Jewish community and can choose to commit to leaving a gift in their estate plans or trust to as many local Jewish organizations as they would like. Donors can also choose to make gifts while still alive to the endowments that benefit the organizations. The Charleston Jewish Federation administers the program, tracks commitments, and reports the number of donors participating, the estimated amount of dollars secured, and the gifts realized to the Harold Grinspoon Foundation. In some years of participation, the Harold Grinspoon Foundation provides additional incentive dollars to organizations that meet goals. The program is based on best fiscal practices that advise that a percentage of an organization's income should come from endowments and helps organizations plan for the future and remain sustainable.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments:
 Events and activities hosted in the past have included happy hours, Shabbat dinners, beach days, tikkun olam (repair the World) events, and learning sessions with our local rabbis. Every gathering of YJC is designed for young adults to form valuable friendships and feel at home around their peers.

PJ Library
 The PJ Library is a unique program that encourages Jewish families with young children to explore Jewish literature. Families do not have to be affiliated or any specific branch of Judaism. All families, so long as they choose to raise their children with some Jewish education, are eligible. Each month, PJ Library sends an age-appropriate Jewish content book or gift to enrolled children from birth to age nine. After they turn nine, they can enroll in PJ Our Way, the next chapter in the PJ experience. Created by The Harold Grinspoon Foundation (HGF), PJ Library is funded by the Charleston Jewish Federation, local philanthropists, and HGF. Our local PJ chapter also provides opportunities for families to explore their Jewishness through various experiences - virtual and in person, individual and group.

Shalom Baby
 Shalom Baby is designed to help Charleston families (affiliated, non-affiliated, and interfaith) celebrate the arrival of their Jewish newborns and welcome them to the Jewish Community through gift baskets, playgroups, social events, holiday celebrations, and resource guides. These events help parents connect with others, find local resources, and navigate parenthood.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:
Strengthening Our Connection to Israel and Jewish Peoplehood

Israel Engagement Initiative
 There is no place in the world more meaningful for the Jewish people than Israel. While the ancient land of Israel has always been home to the Jews, since 1948, the modern State of Israel has completely transformed what it means to be a Jew. Because of the State of Israel, Jews have a national Identity, wherever they live. Here at the Charleston Jewish Federation, we believe that Israel is one of the most effective ways to connect North American Jews of all ages to their heritage, and thereby strengthen our connections to the local Jewish community and the worldwide Jewish community. We also know that Israelis get more involved, more connected, and more aware of their Jewish identity when they have relationships with Jews outside of Israel.
