

LITTLE FREE JEWISH LIBRARY CONTEST

The Little Free Jewish Library will be housed outside the Max Weinstein Jewish Community Building, located at 6434 Enterprise Lane, Madison, WI, and provide a space for anyone in the community to take or share Jewish and Hebrew books. Show off your creativity for this fun community project by entering your design in the Little Free Jewish Library Contest using the template below. Scan and email your design to Tiz at outreach@jewishmadison.org by March 31, 2019. The winning design will be selected by online public community vote. Submitted designs will be voted on Tuesday, April 2, 2019, 12:00 pm until Tuesday, April 9, 2019, 12:00 pm. The winner will design the additional panels (sides, back, etc...) based on their winning design concept (see project specs for details) and have the opportunity to paint the library themselves or just submit the designs and have someone else paint.
