

California-Mexico Border

Digital Storytelling Adventure

San Diego-Tijuana Border with a Jewish Focus

July 8-14, 2019

PEACE WORKS
TRAVEL

Students are invited to travel on an educational journey of a lifetime.

PEACE WORKS
TRAVEL

Students are invited to travel on an educational journey of a lifetime.

Border Highlights

- Attend Shabbat services on the beach with local Synagogue
- Explore Old Town San Diego
- Savor multi-cultural fusion gourmet cuisine
- Photograph iconic landscapes: Chicano and Friendship Parks
- Engage in a Q & A with a Border Patrol agent at the border wall
- Walk bordered beaches in Tijuana and U.S.
- Work with Jewish Family Services of San Diego's Rapid Response Network/Visit NGOs helping deported veterans and asylum-seekers
- Meet local activists: Madres Y Familias Deportadas En Acción
- Visit the bi-national garden "Friendship Park" in Playas, Tijuana
- Understand NAFTA: visit maquila factory complex and workers' neighborhoods
- Support social enterprises of Mixtec indigenous artists
- Shop colorful mercados (Outdoor artisan markets).

Registration Deadline:

April 8, 2019

For questions, please contact:
Joy Elizondo, Program Manager
Peace Works Travel
Main: 805-685-8687

Email: joy@PeaceWorksTravel.com
Website: <https://peaceworkstravel.com/>

How much does it cost? $1,995.00

Includes: Hotels, meals, pre- and post-trip educational instruction, service learning project, admission fees, 24/7 emergency support, travel insurance.*

Register Here:

<https://programs.peaceworkstravel.com/?go=BorderJuly2019>

Price does not include travel to San Diego*