

Introduction to Kabbalah

Taught by Justin C. Beck

Join Justin in exploring questions of Jewish spirituality such as:

- What is the meaning of life?
- Why do bad things happen to good people?
- How can I make my life more meaningful and fulfilled?
- Is there life after death and reincarnation?

The Jewish answers to these questions will be explored during this three-part introduction to Kabbalah.

March 31, April 7, April 14

7pm | JCC

360 Amity Road, Woodbridge, CT

Cost for 3 sessions:

JCC Members $45 / Community Members $50

Justin C. Beck has been studying and practicing kabbalah for over 15 years in the US and Israel. He studied at two yeshivas in Jerusalem; Nahar Shalom and Simchat Shlomo Yeshiva. He also studied with many revered rabbis, scholars, teachers, and spiritual practitioners in the US and Israel and has recently taught Kabbalah at Fairfield University, synagogues, public adult continuing education, and Hebrew high school students in Fairfield County.

Info: Mara Balk | marab@jccnh.org | 203-387-2522 x300

