

the ROSES IN JUNE

Sunday, June 25, 2017

Bus Trip to Plays & Players Theater, Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia

(The theater is not wheelchair accessible.)

Leave JCC at 11:30am for Matinee at 2:00pm

Show will include talkback following the play

The desecration of Jewish gravestones which has just occurred in America also happened with frequency in Nazi Germany.

(LEFT – Desecration of a Jewish Cemetery in Philadelphia, February 27, 2017.)

(RIGHT – Desecration of the Playwright’s great grandparents’ gravestone by Nazis, Seigburg, Germany, 1938.)

Ingrid and George Rose have successfully rebuilt their lives in Britain after fleeing Nazi Germany but, when their 15-year-old son Paul is a victim of bullying and anti-Semitism at school, the trauma of their own persecution reemerges with almost deadly consequences. “The Roses in June,” set in swinging London on the eve of Israel’s 1967 Six-Day War, explores the struggle of love, fear, regret and forgiveness on the eve of a possible second Holocaust and against the burdens of prejudice, traumatic memory and the complex attitude of the English towards the Jews as the school attempts, at all costs, to avoid any scandal.

$40 for JCC members and $45 for non-members.

Price includes orchestra seat, chartered Bieber bus and driver gratuity.

Seating at the theater is limited, first come, first serve.

After the play there will be free time for dinner on your own in Rittenhouse Square.

We will return to the JCC by 9pm. RSVP with payment by June 12.

RSVP with payment by Mon., June 12; Mail to JCC, PO Box 14925, Reading PA 19612 or call 610-921-0624

Names(s) _____ will be attending bus trip to The Roses in June ___ attending Phone _____ email _____
$ _____ enclosed $40 per member; $45 per non-member ... Checks payable to Jewish Federation
Credit card acct # _____ 3-digit code _____ Exp. date _____
Name on card _____ Signature _____
(550JUN)