An Abundance of Problems and Accomplishments

Dear Friends,

This has been another exceptionally challenging, but also tremendously rewarding program and fiscal year (July 1, 2024-June 30, 2025) for our local community and for Jews everywhere.

Israel was still at war with Hamas throughout the year and on June 13th it launched Operation Rising Lion, a both retaliatory and pre-emptive air and drone strike targeting over 100 sites in Iran, with the critical goal of neutralizing Iran's nuclear ambitions. Within hours, the Iranians responded with a series of missile attacks causing the tragic loss of approximately 28 Israelis and wide-spread damage to population centers, leaving thousands homeless.

Even before the war with Iran ended (or was put on pause), the leadership of the Tampa JCCs and Federation began planning a "Resilience Campaign" to assist Israel at this critical time. This new fundraising initiative was catalyzed by an extremely generous gift of $250,000 from Dr. Robert Lewenson for a matching campaign. Thank you, Rob!

Locally there were many other very serious challenges that necessitated the need to raise significant sums of money, over and above our emergency support of Israel and, of course, our Annual Campaign. Those included the funds that were secured by the Tampa JCCs and Federation to help the large number of people and Jewish institutions in Tampa affected by the devastation of Hurricane Helene and then, very shortly after, by Hurricane Milton. The Tampa Bay Times described the situation aptly, "13 days, 2 hurricanes and incalculable anxiety." Thanks to the generosity and spirit of our community, we mobilized financial resources and volunteer efforts to assist many individuals, families and institutions across Tampa's Jewish landscape.

The alarming rise of antisemitism (Jew hate) continues to be a major problem around the country and in our own backyard. According to the ADL's 2024 Audit of Antisemitic Incidents – which included assaults, vandalism and harassment – a record 9,354 incidents were reported. This represents a remarkable (not in a good way) 893% increase in the past decade.

Our organization addressed this very consequential threat to our community's safety in a variety of meaningful ways: we continued to work very closely with all local and national law enforcement agencies to try to ensure the security not only of the Tampa JCCs and Federation's facilities and the individuals and families learning, playing, working and living in them, but of all the Jewish organizations and people in the area; we applied for and received generous grants from the State of Florida, Homeland Security and the Jewish Federations of North

America's (JFNA) Live Secure Fund to help provide protection for our facilities and, again, for other Jewish institutions in our community; we consulted and collaborated regularly with the administration of the University of South Florida and witnessed some important improvements on that campus; and our Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), sometimes working in partnership with our JCCs and several other community organizations, offered many programs focused on combatting antisemitism and addressing misinformation or disinformation regarding Israel. These programs collectively drew large audiences of Jewish and non-Jewish people.

Amid these challenges and problems, our agency experienced numerous achievements and successes. Among multiple other accomplishments: we continued to financially support the important work of our local beneficiary agencies as well as organizations in Israel with the money we raised and from our Annual Campaign; we held scores of JCCs and Federation programs and events for many purposes that generated record crowds, including our Annual President's Dinner featuring Bari Weiss; and despite very serious financial concerns at the facility, we continued to offer excellent care to the residents of our Weinberg Village ALF; we engaged multiple newcomers to Tampa as well as previously unaffiliated individuals and families; and we honored many very well-deserving people at our different awards programs, including Joel Karpay with the Karen and Keith Schilit Tikkun Olam Award and Debbie and Brian Taub with the Maureen and Douglas Cohn Builders Award. Mazel Tov and Yasher Koach to these community superstars. And again, this is only a small list of our numerous activities.

As always, our successes and achievements were directly attributable to our incredibly talented and committed staff, our extremely dedicated volunteers, and our extraordinarily generous donors and community partners. We are tremendously grateful to all of you! We also want to express our deepest appreciation to the law enforcement professionals, government administrators and elected officials we work with on a regular basis. Together, we honored our past, embraced our present and strove to shape the Jewish future with purpose, resilience and hope. Todah Rabah!
